Dear :

This letter responds to a letter dated September 9, 2008, submitted on behalf of Parent, requesting an extension of time under § 301.9100-3 of the Procedure and Administration regulations to file an election. Parent is requesting an extension to file a “§ 338 election” under § 338(g) with respect to Purchaser 1’s acquisition of the stock of Target 1, and the deemed acquisition of the stock of Target Affiliate 1, and Purchaser 2’s acquisition of the stock of Target 2 (sometimes hereinafter referred to as the “Election”), on Date A. Additional information was received in a letters dated October 10, 2008, and October 30, 2008. The material information is summarized below.

Parent is the common parent of a consolidated group. Purchaser 1 and Purchaser 2 are members of Parent’s consolidated group. Target 1, Target 2, and Target Affiliate 1 were wholly-owned foreign subsidiaries of Seller.

On Date A, Purchaser 1 and Purchaser 2 acquired all of the stock of Target 1 and Target 2, respectively, from Seller solely in exchange for cash and the assumption of liabilities. It is represented that Purchaser 1’s acquisition of the stock of Target 1 and Purchaser 2’s acquisition of the stock of Target 2 qualified as “qualified stock purchases,” as defined in § 338(d)(3).

It is represented that prior to the acquisitions, Target 1, Target 2, and Target Affiliate 1 (sometimes hereinafter collectively referred to as “Targets”) were controlled foreign corporations within the meaning of § 957.

The Election was due on Date B, but for various reasons a valid Election was not filed. After the due date for the Election, it was discovered that the Election had not been filed. Subsequently, this request was submitted, under § 301.9100-3, for an extension of time to file the Election. Notwithstanding the failure to timely file the Election, Parent filed all tax returns consistent with a valid election having been made, including the filing of Forms 8883. The period of limitations on assessment under § 6501(a) has not expired for Parent's consolidated group's or Targets' taxable years in which the acquisition occurred, the taxable years in which the Election should have been filed, or any taxable years that would have been affected by the Election had it been timely filed.

Section 338(a) permits certain stock purchases to be treated as asset acquisitions if: (1) the purchasing corporation makes or is treated as having made a "§ 338 election"; and (2) the acquisition is a "qualified stock purchase."

Under § 301.9100-1(c), the Commissioner has discretion to grant a reasonable extension of time to make a regulatory election or a statutory election (but no more than six months except in the case of a taxpayer who is abroad), under all subtitles of the Internal Revenue Code except subtitles E, G, H, and I.

Sections 301.9100-1 through 301.9100-3 provide the standards the Commissioner will use to determine whether to grant an extension of time to make a regulatory election. Section 301.9100-1(a) describes the Commissioner's authority to grant an extension of time to make a regulatory election. Section 301.9100-2 provides automatic extensions of time for making certain elections. Requests for relief under § 301.9100-3 will be granted when the taxpayer provides evidence to establish that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith, and that granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government. Section 301.9100-3(a).

In this case, the time for filing the Election is fixed by the regulations (i.e., § 1.338-2(d)). Therefore, the Commissioner has discretionary authority under § 301.9100-3 to grant an extension of time for Parent to file the Election, provided Parent acted reasonably and in good faith, the requirements of §§ 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 are satisfied, and granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government.

Information, affidavits, and representations submitted by Parent, Company Official 1, Company Official 2, and Tax Professional explain the circumstances that resulted in the failure to timely file a valid Election. The information establishes that the request for relief was filed before the failure to make the Election was discovered by the Internal Revenue Service. See § 301.9100-3(b)(1)(i).

Based on the facts and information submitted, including the representations made, we conclude that Parent has shown it acted reasonably and in good faith, the requirements of §§ 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 are satisfied, and granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government. Accordingly, an extension of time is granted under § 301.9100-3, until 45 days from the date on this letter, for Parent to file the Election with respect to the acquisition of the stock of Target 1 and Target 2 and the deemed acquisition of the stock of Target Affiliate 1, as described above.

WITHIN 45 DAYS OF THE DATE ON THIS LETTER, Parent must file the Election on Form 8023, in accordance with § 1.338-2(d) and the instructions to the form. A copy of this letter must be attached to Form 8023 and to any tax return to which it is relevant. Alternatively, taxpayers filing their returns electronically may satisfy the requirement of attaching a copy of this letter by attaching a statement to their return that provides the date and control number of the letter ruling. Target 1, Target 2, and Target Affiliate 1 being controlled foreign corporations, Parent also must satisfy any other requirements for the Election, including the notice required under § 1.338-2(e)(4).

The above extension of time is conditioned on the taxpayers' (Parent's consolidated group's and Targets') tax liability (if any) being not lower, in the aggregate, for all year to which the Election applies, than it would have been if the Election had been timely made (taking into account the time value of money). No opinion is expressed as to the taxpayers' tax liability for the years involved. A determination thereof will be made by the applicable Director's office upon audit of the federal income tax returns involved. Further, no opinion is expressed as to the federal income tax effect, if any, if it is determined that the taxpayers' tax liability is lower. Section 301.9100-3(c).

We express no opinion as to: (1) whether the acquisitions of the Target 1 and Target 2 stock qualify as "qualified stock purchases" under § 338(d)(3); or (2) any other tax consequences arising from the Election.

In addition, we express no opinion as to the tax consequences of filing the Election late under the provisions of any other section of the Code and regulations, or as to the tax treatment of any conditions existing at the time of, or resulting from, filing the Election late that are not specifically set forth in the above ruling. For purposes of granting relief under § 301.9100-3, we relied on certain statements and representations made by the taxpayers. However, the Director should verify all essential facts. In addition, notwithstanding that an extension is granted under § 301.9100-3 to file the Election, penalties and interest that would otherwise be applicable, if any, continue to apply.

This letter is directed only to the taxpayer(s) who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

Pursuant to the Power of Attorney on file in this office, a copy of this letter is being sent to your authorized representatives.

Sincerely,

Ken Cohen
